Top Stories

Excitement is mounting for the first-ever national (and international) radio Webcast focused solely on dropout prevention. Plan to participate in the first broadcast of Solutions to the Dropout Crisis, airing live on Tuesday, February 26, at 3:30 P.M. Eastern Time. Two weeks prior to the program, you can download resources and send in questions.

Family Engagement

Parents in Education: Lessons From Five Parental Information And Resource Centers explains "how to" strategies that the Parent Information Resource Centers (PIRCs) use to improve or expand their parental involvement programs in public schools.

<http://www.ed.gov/admins/comm/parents/parentinvolve/engagingparents.pdf>

Parental involvement is a crucial factor for student success, but reaching out to parents can be a challenge for busy service-learning educators. What Is Service-Learning? A Guide for Parents is available to help.

Early Childhood Education

A new report from ZERO TO THREE and Pre-K Now offers tailored suggestions, strategies and guidelines for states to improve complex education systems to ensure they reach pre-kindergarteners, toddlers and even babies.

<http://www.zerotothree.org/commonvision>

To help better understand what comprises beneficial programs, the Foundation for Child Development has released a policy brief that examines the factors associated with expulsion from pre-kindergarten.
